DR. WM. T. GARDNER.

There passed away in Ardmore Saturday one of the simplest, kindliest and gentlest of men, Dr. William Thomas Gardner, who will be missed most by those who knew him best. The circle of his immediate acquaintance was large and the sphere of his influence was wider than any man can say. It is not possible to set metes and bounds to the influence of one who touched the great life of the community so quietly and the lives of those with whom he came in contact so gently. His character is best summed up in the world of meaning there is in the word "sunshine." He had "sunshine in his soul," not in the glib, goody-and often canting form affected by many good people who imagine they are better than most other people.
Dr. Gardner was catholic in his sympathy, and the sweetness of his disposition endeared him to all—to the humblest for whom he always had a pleasant word, as well as to his comrades in Odd Fellowship, which he irradiated with the geniality of his presence.

Dr. Gardner grew toward the three score mark not only gracefully, but cheerily and sweetly. He was good without ostentation, pious without pretense, charitable without display, helpful and sympathetic without patronizing, ruggedly honest and a splendid type of citizenship in every relation of life. The passing of such a man leaves a place that cannot be filled. Men who are only business men or warriors or statesmen or geniuses can be replaced. But the subtraction from the sum of human helpfulness, charity and broad fraternity leaves something forever missing from the total.

El Reno is taking the lay sermon craze and U. S. Russell may be called to the pulpit. That isn't fair.
What do El Reno folks care about rotten ice cream factories? It's a clerk they are not interested in.
Shawnee's candidacy for the capital.
And what else can Rus talk about?
—Oklahoman.

The drought has extended to the boozing joints of Ardmore, as evidence, by recent raids made by the sheriff's force in which nothing of a contraband nature was uncovered.—Guthrie Capital.

Now, isn't that a nice compliment?

BIOGRAPHICAL CALENDAR.

Hugh O'Neill, Earl of Tyrone, was born in Ireland 360 years ago today, according to the best authorities, and attained fame as one of the greatest of the many Irish rebels.
He was the son of an illegitimate son of Conn O'Neill, the first Earl of Tyrone, and was himself in 1877 invested with his grandfather's title and estate.

As a born adventurer, he was not satisfied with a quiet life of ease.
He plunged into intrigues, won with the Irish rebels and with Spain against the authority of Elizabeth.
In 1597 he threw off all restraint and assuming the ancient title of "The O'Neill," he essayed the struggle openly. He started a confederation of insurrection that soon flamed over all Ulster, Connaught and Leinster.

The queen sent over Essex with 20,000 men. Tyrone met him under truce and through him submitted his demands to Elizabeth. Lord Mountjoy later succeeded Essex in command and quickly subdued the rebellious order of most of the Irishmen.

At length, in 1601, a Spanish force of 5,000 men landed at Kinsale, and 2,000 more at Castletown. Mountjoy at once besieged the former place.

BAPTISTS PUT
SUNDAY BASEBALL
ON BLACKLIST

ENON ASSOCIATION SAYS IT
ROBS THEIR SUNDAY SCHOOLS OF BOYS.

At the meeting in this city last week of the Enon Baptist association the matter of Sunday baseball was taken up and resolutions passed condemning the sport and asking that the churches use all means to suppress it.

The resolutions are as follows: Realizing the destructive force of Sunday baseball and its tendency to destroy the sacredness of the Sabbath, we view with dismay the growth of this institution.

It is one of the greatest evils of the day, a foe to the church and the spiritual life of our members. It robs our Sunday schools of our boys and takes from our church services those who need the religious instruction. It is to be condemned by all good men and every means should be used by the church to suppress this evil.

We would therefore recommend:
That every legal and moral expedient possible be used for its suppression and

That our churches use every means at hand to cause our members to refrain from attending Sunday baseball.

A prominent London physician has found that swearing is conducive to good health. Now we know why Ardmore's death rate is so low.

Now is the time of the year when it is fashionable to have hay fever, but even at that it is a proposition that is not to be sneezed at.

"Yes," said the conceited man, "I just have one little fault, but it is hardly noticeable." "Just like the small hole that makes a plugged nickle no good," replied the other fellow.

Lines dedicated to Hon. Tom Robnett, republican and debater with socialists:
We'd rather flit among the clouds,

And have the load to carry.

"Texas for starvation; Mexico for immigration; to Hell with Taft's administration, I'm bound for Ark-

ENON BAPTIST
ASSOCIATION HAD
FINE MEETING

YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN OFFER THEMSELVES AS MISSIONARIES TO FOREIGN FIELD.

The 25th session of Enon Association convened with the South Battist church Thursday, Sept. 2.

Rev. W. R. Selvidge was re-elected moderator and D. N. Curb was for the fifth time re-elected clerk. This association of Baptist churches was organized 25 years ago near the place where the Newhope Baptist church now stands in Love county, Oklahoma at that time it embraced all of the Chickasaw nation, at present it covers Carter and Love counties.
There are at present about 35 churches with a membership of 2,000.

This last was one of the best sessions the association has ever had the attendance from the local churches was especially good besides these there were present Rev. W. S. Wiley of Muskogee, representing the American Baptist Publishing Society; Rev.
A. G. Washburn, superintendent of missions among the five civilized tribes of Indians.

Dr. Williams of Waco, Texas, representing the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary at Waco, also Rev. J. T. Slaughter, representing the Baptist University at Dallas, Tex., and last but by no means least, the impressible newspaper man, Rev. L.
W. Marks, who represented the Word and Way, a Baptist paper published at Kansas City.

The association was called to order Thursday morning at 10 o'clock by the moderator, Rev. W. R. Selvidge, after which an hour was spent in devotional service.

At 11 o'clock the annual sermon was delivered by Rev. Selvidge from Matt. 25:14.

The afternoon was given to organization and routine work.

At 8:30 the house was crowded to hear Rev. Leslie L. Sanders, the brilliant young pastor of the Broadway Baptist church. The text was taken from Prov. 11:30. The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winnows souls is wise." The subject was soul winning and for almost an hour the preacher held his audience spellbound, at the close of this service at the suggestion of the moderator a hymn was sung and the glad hand of welcome was given Bro.
Sanders and many of the old veterans of the cross were heard to say God bless you young man. Broadway church is fortunate indeed in securing this talented and consecrated young man for their pastor.

Friday morning was given to hearing reports of committees.

At the 11 o'clock hour the associations listened to a very able and inspiring sermon by Rev. A. G. Washburn, his subject was "Our possibilities under God." The text was taken from Exodus 4th chapter and second verse, "And the Lord said unto him (Moses) what is that in thine hand?" When the preacher had finished we had been made to feel like Paul when he exclaimed, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

The Friday evening hour was made a special order to hear the report on Orphans' Home, and spoken to first by Rev. Leslie Sanders, who said that he himself was a production of an orphan's home.

Rev. D. N. Curb, in a few words, told how that he had watched the Baptist Orphans' Home grow from the very small beginning of three or four orphans picked up in Oklahoma City by a Baptist preacher and cared for in a little rented building until it has become the great institution that it is today with buildings and grounds worth $65,000, where at present 53 orphans are being cared for and educated.

Rev. W. A. McKinney, superintendent of the home was called for and spoke at length about the work of the home.

Little Katie, one of the girls of the home was called for, and sang a beautiful solo that touched many hearts.

At the close of this service an offering of about $125 was given to the home.

Mr. McKinney stated while here that Ardmore had given more to the home than any other city in the state.
All day Saturday was given to the business of the association. In the afternoon the report of the missionary Rev. Oscar Paschall was heard which showed a good year's work done. Because of failing health Rev. Paschall declined to further continue in the work.

The resignation of Bro. Paschall brought the association to the selection of some one to take his place.
The names of several prominent brethren and on the third ballot Rev. body and one the third ballot Rev.

Brad Hays was declared elected by a handsome majority which was immediately made heartily unanimous.
The salary of Rev. Hays was fixed at $900. Rev. Hays (Brad) as he is familiarly known served Enon Association for four years as missionary, when the territory covered the entire Chickasaw nation. During these years he would be away from home, wife and children for weeks and even months without even hearing from them, because postoffices were scarce and far between in those days in Indian Territory.

Six years ago he was again elected and served four years more so that now he begins the ninth year of service as missionary of this one association. During these trying years Bro. Hays has cared for and educated fairly well eight children of his own and seven orphan children that were left with him. This should be evidence enough for us all of the truthfulness of the scriptural injunction, "Trust in the Lord and do good so shalt thou dwell in this land and verily thou shalt be fed." vs. 37:3.

Saturday evening we heard Brother Williams of the Southwestern Seminary of Waco, Texas, on consecration.
At the close of his great sermon many stood up on the proposition that they were willing that their children might be used of the Lord in any way even should he call them to be missionaries on the foreign field. Two young men and two girls also signified their willingness to give their lives to the service of God.

An offering of $650 was made to the endowment fund of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Sunday at 11 o'clock Rev. Brad Hays preached from his favorite text, John 3:16. The presence of the spirit was felt from the beginning. At the close of the sermon a hymn was sung and many came to grasp the hand of the preacher and express their appreciation of the message and their confidence in the messenger.

At this time the pastor asked the church for an offering for association missions and in just a few minutes more than one hundred dollars was given. This church lays aside her swaddling clothes and came knocking for admission into the ranks of the great Baptist churches of our beloved south land.

At 8 o'clock we heard an able sermon by Rev. L. W. Marks of Oklahoma City.

Thus closed the best session Enon Association has ever held.

FOR RAILROAD SPEED WAR

J. J. HILL WOULD REDUCE
CHICAGO TO SEATTLE 10 HOURS—WANT FAST MAIL.

Chicago, Sept. 6.—The railroad running time from Chicago to Seattle will be reduced to sixty-two hours—ten hours below the present schedule—as the first move in the war declared upon all other Western and Northern roads by James J. Hill of the Great Northern.

The Burlington, Great Northern and Northern Pacific have made a proposition to the postoffice department to put a new fast mail train in service between Chicago and Seattle to make the long run in sixty-two hours. Notice was served today by the Burlington that effective September 12, that road would no longer observe the Western passenger train speed agreement, but would reduce the running time of its main Chicago-Denver train by two hours.

If the government accepts the proposition of the Hill roads it will result in facilitating the Northern mail service by fully half a day. It is proposed to start the new fast train out of Chicago about 1:50 o'clock in the morning and arrive at Seattle at noon on the third day.

The Burlington's move in the direction of faster time between Chicago and Denver may lead to another phase of the promised speed war.
Formerly the Chicago-Denver schedule was 27 1/2 hours, but now it is 29 1/2 hours. More than a year ago the western roads made an agreement lengthening all schedules clear to the Pacific coast. Shortly after it was put in force this agreement was broken by several of the roads.

Official notice was given today by S. M. Felton, president, that the headquarters of the Great Western would be removed from St. Paul to Chicago.
Notice was also given of the appointment of Joseph W. Hlabon, formerly vice-president of the Alton, to the position of vice president of the Great Western in charge of traffic.
Other appointments, announced were:
General counsel, John Barton Payne; auditor, J. W. Newland; treasurer, R. O. Barnard; secretary, G. P. Phil-leo.

HARRY L. BECK.

With the Empire Stock Company, Summer Theater, all this week.

The above is a good likeness of Harry L. Beck, the character comedian, who played Fritz O'Berlitz in "Her Fatal Error," at the summer theater last night.

The play was one of the best seen here in years at 10, 20 and 30 cents.
The work of Miss Libbie Brittain

Bernadine, the "wife," exceptionally clever. The show is very evenly balanced and will no doubt draw an immense crowd tonight, the play being "The Bosom Friend of Bowser."

The play, "Her Fatal Error," is a peculiar play of tears and laughter.
Better go tonight.

HOW ARDMORE FOLK
SPENT LABOR DAY

WORKINGMEN AND FAMILIES GO TO LORENA PARK—PICNIC
SPEAKING AND BASEBALL.

Yesterday throughout the United States was Labor's holiday and in Ardmore the day was made the occasion for a big basket picnic at Lorena park, following a parade through the principal streets by the members of the various unions and other bodies including a display of the city's street forces under Commissioner Burnitt.

The parade was several blocks in length and included the brick masons and plasterers unions in autos, the county sheriff's force, the chief of police and patrolmen, the fire department, the carpenters' union, the electrical workers, the retail clerks union, the barbers and the pressmen.
The Ardmore band made good music along the route of march and when the corner of C and Main was reached the parade broke and those who cared took waiting cars to the park where speeches were made, the principal one being by Judge Stillwell H.
Russell.

Following the few formalities of the morning and when dinner time was reached baskets were opened and cloths were spread in various parts of the grounds and a big picnic was enjoyed by scores of families.

After dinner and until the ball game those who cared patronized the various forms of amusement offered in the grounds, and gathered in groups for social intercourse. Many attended the ball games, there being three during the day. The morning game was between the Springer team and the local amateurs, the Springerites walking away with the big end of the score which was 12 to 1. In the afternoon the Blues played a double header with Coalgate, each team winning a game.

A large part of the big crowd remained at the park until late in the evening taking advantage of the natorium and other entertainment features. Down town the Ardmore and various moving picture shows were patronized extensively.

All the business houses and public offices being closed, many private parties were made up and who spent the day in the country in fishing and hunting.

MICROBES IN THE SCALP:

THE LATEST EXPLANATION IS THAT MICROBES CAUSE BALD-NESS.

Professor Unna, of Hamburg, Germany, and Dr. Sabourand of Paris, France, share the honor of having discovered the hair microbe.

Baldness is not caused through a few weeks' work of these hair microbes, but is the result of conditions brought about by their presence. Baldness may not occur until years after the microbes begin work, but it is certain to come sooner or later.

The microbes cut off the blood supply. They feed on the fatty matter about the root of the hair, through which the blood is absorbed. Finally the fatty matter is wholly consumed, the food supply of the hair is gone and it starves and finally dies.

Resorcin is one of the most effective germ destroyers; Beta Naphthol is both germicidal and antiseptic; Pilocarpin, though not a dye, restores natural color to hair when loss of color was caused by disease.
These curatives properly mixed with alcohol as a stimulant, perfect a remedy unequalled for curing scalp and hair troubles.

We want everyone who has Any scalp or hair trouble to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic, which contains all these ingredients. If it does not grow hair on your bald head, stop your hair from falling out; cure your dandruff; make your hair thick, silkly, luxuriant; if it does not give you complete satisfaction in every particular, return the empty bottle to us, and we shall return every penny you paid us for it, without question or formality.

Of course, you understand that when we say that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will grow hair on bald heads, we do not refer to cases where the roots are entirely dead, and the pores of the scalp closed, and the head has the shiny appearance of a billiard ball. In cases like this, there is no hope. In all other cases of baldness Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will positively grow hair, or cost the user nothing. The City Drug Store, W. B. Frame, Prop.
